Mesoestetic Age Element

45 MINUTES
£95

Skin aging is a gradual process that appears as a result of a series of alterations in the appearance and texture of the skin.

Its main visible signs manifest independently, and they depend on factors that can be either internal -genetic- or external -lifestyle and the environment-. The latter promote the activation of epigenetic markers, becoming the main accelerators of skin aging.

Mesoestetic® have developed an antiaging solution that act on the epigenetic markers responsible for skin aging, by means of which we counteract the signs of skin aging and enhance beauty at every stage of life.

Treatments include: Anti wrinkle, Brightening, Firming and Redensifying

Microneedling RF

£299

3 TREATMENTS

£799

MRF Microneedling (Radiofrequency Microneedling) is a skilled skin rejuvenation technique whereby two technologies come together to encourage the production of collagen proteins within the skin. Our device does this through the use of insulated needles that not only inflict highly controlled trauma to the outermost layer, but also deliver radiofrequency energy deeper into the skin at the same time.

This ignites natural healing processes and increases cell turnover. As a result, skin appears naturally tighter and firmer after just one treatment session, but the best results are seen over the course of around 3 treatments with annual top-ups.

This can target skin concerns such as:

- Fine Lines
- Wrinkles
- Stretch Marks
- Appearance of Large Pores
- Acne Scars
- Scars from Injury or Surgery
- Hyperpigmentation
- Loose, Sagging Skin
- Cellulite

The benefits of receiving the Dermalux LED light are:

- Stimulates the production of collagen and elastin, which over time will remodel the dermal layer to diminish the appearance of wrinkles
- Increases the circulation
- Increases lymphatic activity which speeds up the healing process
- Strengthens the capillary walls
- Increases cellular energy which improves and speeds up the efficiency with which the skin functions, regenerates, repairs and heals itself
- Increases hydration within the skin and an improved ability to retain moisture
- Decreases redness so excellent for Rosacea, and reactive/sensitised skins prone to redness
- Improved elasticity & firmness
- Calm the skin and reduce irritation and inflammation, including inflammatory acne
- Improve the texture, clarity and radiance of the skin
- Improves skin conditions such as eczema and psoriasis

HIFU - High Intensity Focused Ultrasound

HIFU uses focused ultrasound energy to target the layers of skin just below the surface. The ultrasound energy causes the tissue to heat up rapidly. Once the cells in the targeted area reach a certain temperature, they experience cellular damage. While this may seem counterintuitive, the damage actually stimulates the cells to produce more collagen – a protein that provides structure to the skin.

The increase in collagen results in tighter, firmer skin with fewer wrinkles. Since the high-frequency ultrasound beams are focused on a specific tissue site below the skin's surface, there's no damage to the upper layers of the skin and adjacent issue.

HIFU may not be appropriate for everyone. In general, the procedure works best on people older than 30 with mild-to-moderate skin laxity.

Skin Boosters

Polynucleotides

Polynucleotides are biostimulators, which means they kick-start regeneration within the skin. But rather than just providing hydration, polynucleotides are more like food or medicine for the cells, to make them produce collagen and elastin in a more meaningful way.

All that collagen-boosting, extra hydration and elasticity means you can think of polynucleotides as a super-charged injectable moisture treatment.

They can be a preventative treatment for younger skin, or a recovery treatment for ageing skin

Polynucleotides are a great treatment to counteract dark circles under the eyes and to strengthen the thin delicate skin around the mouth plus many more options.
